GAME NOTES

• The Flames will look to get into the win column as they opened the 2021 Spring Championship Series with a 1-0 loss to West Alabama. The match was played in Huntsville, Ala. and will not count as a conference game since West Alabama is in Group A.

• The GSC men's soccer teams will be split into two groups of five, and the women's teams will be split into two groups of six. The pools were developed to facilitate efficient competition opportunities for GSC student-athletes and institutions.

• Following NCAA policy, the GSC will collect statistics and results from these spring seasons. Wins and losses will count towards all-time standings and coach records, while teams and student-athletes are eligible for single game records and numbers will count towards career records.

• Spring Championship Series Championships will not count as official GSC Championships.

• Coach Potteiger's Thoughts - "We have a lot of new faces since the 2019 season and are trying to figure some important things out. We trained all fall together and for a few weeks this semester but these are our first few games and you really don't know your team until they line up and compete against someone else. We will learn quickly and we will get better before our next game and then we will see where we are. I like this group but now we have one agenda and that is to improve from tonight."

• The Flames will play the next two games on the road as they travel to Alabama Huntsville on Friday at 7 p.m. and tangle with Shorter on Sunday, Mar. 7 at 1 p.m. The Flames will wrap up the shortened spring season on Friday, Mar. 12 at 4 p.m.

• The defending GSC Champions were picked by the conference coaches to finish third in Group B.
