GAME NOTES

• Last time out the Lee softball team dropped two closely contested albeit very different contests on March 3 to the No. 13 Young Harris Mountain Lions from Butler Field. Game one went to nine innings with the Mountain Lions pushing across the go-ahead run in the top of ninth and closing things in the bottom half to win 3-2. Game two saw the Georgia club explode to a 13-3 lead going into the bottom of the third only to hold on to win with the tying run at the plate in the bottom of the seventh for the Lady Flames.

• "I was happy to see fight back like that in game two," said Lee head coach Emily Russell. "After a tough extra innings loss in game one it would have been easy to mail it in after going down by 10 runs in game two but we never quit and battled back to give ourselves a chance in the end. We just have to be more careful with giving free passes on the bases. We aren't always as careful as we need to be. We are young in spots and there is room to grow."

• Freshman LANEY HARRIS homered twice in the doubleheader with Young Harris and leads the team with three home runs and 12 RBI. Abby McKinney and Taylor De Adder provided a spark for the Lady Flames in game two as both players went yard. De Adder struck out six in 4.1 scoreless innings of relief in game two.

• This weekend is the first of back-to-back home GSC weekend series against Delta State (Mar. 12-13) and Montevallo (Mar. 20-21). Sandwiched between those two series will be a mid-week trip to Emmanuel College for a non-conference doubleheader on Tuesday, Mar. 16.

• Delta State has won two straight and four of its last five. They dropped the first game of each of the last two GSC weekend series. DSU lost 6-0 in the first game of a doubleheader with West Georgia, then won the next two by the same 7-6 score. Last weekend, DSU lost 14-2 to West Alabama before claiming the next two games, 6-5 and 4-1.
