GAME NOTES

• Dealing with COVID: "I hope that we will not be limited with COVID issues," said Coach Russell. "I hope that being outside for our sport will help control any spread. I know we are excited to compete and travel. It has been a while since our team has competed and they are definitely ready."

• "The fall was a little different for us," commented Russell. "We had a few injuries as well as quarantines that made it difficult to get work in together. We got to know each other and I think that their strength as a group will show for the team."

• Due to the 2020 season suddenly ending, the NCAA gave seniors an extra season and the Lee administration approved an extra year for pitcher/outfielder Abby McKinney, shortstop Kayla Louie, and pitcher Gracie Leslie. All three are expected to play key roles when play begins today.

• Sophomore pitcher/infielder Taylor DeAdder, junior catcher Madison Besaw, junior outfielder Lily Hatcher, and junior pitcher Shonna Penney are back for another year.

• "We have a big class because we knew we had to replace the outgoing seniors who played such a big part of our success the past four years," said Russell. "We added eight freshmen; two pitchers in Mallory Orchard and Madison Barnett, infielders in Laney Harris and Kylie Bohl and outfielders Annie Ormsby, Madison Richards and Carissa Frost. We are using Shelby Cole in both infield and outfield. They have all showed great promise early and we are excited to see them in action."

• The Lady Flames will be pitted against five teams ranked in the Top 25 of the NCAA D2 preseason poll. North Georgia is listed in the Top 5 and Young Harris follows at No. 6, Valdosta State No.12, Alabama Huntsville No. 20 and Lincoln Memorial No. 22.

• The Lady Flames were picked to finish 10th by the GSC coaches in the preseason poll.

• After today's games, the Lady Flames will host Lincoln Memorial on Wednesday with first-pitch scheduled for 3 p.m.

• Lee travels to Carson-Newman on Feb. 16 before returning home to begin GSC play against Union University the weekend of February 20-21.
