GAME NOTES

- After 30 years of registering one of the top winning marks on any collegiate level, 839 wins against just 343 defeats, Andrea Hudson announced her retirement from coaching last Wednesday at the end of this spring's volleyball season.
- With her husband Kevin always beside her on the bench, the twosome took the volleyball teams from NCAA play and began to carve a lasting mark against NAIA competition, dominating play in three conferences, TVAC, TranSouth and SSAC. The 2004 team posted an undefeated regular season (35-0) and extended the home winning streak to 78 (second all-time in NAIA). The club also established a new record for most wins (44). Her team made the NAIA National Tournament for five consecutive years (2008-12) and reached the Final Four three times (2009, 2010, and 2011). Andrea was the winner of numerous conference and regional coaching awards, and her husband Kevin was selected as AVCA NAIA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2009.
- The tandem continued to work together as Lee transitioned to NCAA DII leading the 2017 to the program's first GSC Tournament victory over West Alabama. In 2018 the Lady Flames posted a 13-3 mark as Silvia Sartori was named an All-American and the GSC Player of the Year while Makayla Beebe earned GSC Libero of the Year honors.
- The Lady Flames will return three top players, sophomore Abby Stroh, junior Calina Croy and senior Rachel Junen. Also returning are Hannah Longley, Hannah Upton, and Emma Flowers.
- Coach Hudson welcomes key new recruits; Allie Whittinghill a 6-foot freshman and middle blocker from Beech High School (Hendersonville, Tennessee); Abigail Luke a 6-foot freshman and outside hitter from Belmont, North Carolina (Lake Point Academy); and Reagan Bratton a 5-foot-9 freshman setter from Station Camp High School (Hendersonville, Tennessee).
- With 10 freshmen on the squad, Coach Hudson said she had already seen a lot of fundamental improvement. "Last year many of them experienced the collegiate game for the first time. Our hope is that having the entire fall working together will have helped give our current freshman the opportunity to be ready for playing this spring," said Coach Hudson. "We have spent a lot of time on passing and blocking this spring. We are hoping to see mark improvement in these areas."
- Union is coming off of a 3-0 win against Christian Brothers University from Wednesday, March 3.
