GAME NOTES

- COVID interrupted great start: "We were able to play eight games and held a six-win, two-loss record when everything shut down in March. We were undefeated at home and were just about to start Gulf South Conference play when we received the official word. It was the first winning season for our program. We had our first All-American player in midfielder Brittney White. We ended with a No. 43 national ranking, so we feel like we have unfinished business," pointed out Coach Martin "This will be a season where we will need to remain flexible and calm through all the potential schedule changes due to COVID."
- Because play suddenly ended in the middle of spring sport schedules, the NCAA allowed seniors affected another year. "We only had three seniors in 2020, and they all opted to forgo an extra year of lacrosse to finish up their degrees and start their careers," explained Martin.
- Returning players: Midfielder Brittney White was a 2020 freshman. She tallied 90 draw control plays in eight games which was the second-most draw controls in all of Division II women's lacrosse. "She added 19 goals and we will look to her again to help us gain and maintain possession of the ball," noted Martin.

- "This season we moved junior Dariana Blanton from midfield to low attack, allowing her to quarterback our offense. Dariana led last year's team with 26 goals and 19 ground balls. I believe she will be poised to score even more at her new position," the coach stressed. "Senior Kaylyn Dillon will continue to hold down a midfield spot, solidifying our transition game. She is a key player on both ends of the field and shines on both offense and defense. Senior Emily Osborne returns to lead our defense. She picked up 13 ground balls last season and is vital to directing our defensive positioning."
- High hopes for freshmen: "We have several freshmen that we hope will play distinct roles for us," allowed the coach. "Kaleigh Bernard is a goalkeeper that has proven herself in the fall and continues to grow. Avery Schenk is a strong midfielder with a fast-paced shot and should contribute to our goal production. Audrey Dutton is a solid midfielder that exhibits a strong lacrosse IQ, and we will need her on both ends of the field. Jamey Ryan has stepped in on low defense and appears to be a genuine contributor in that role."
