GAME NOTES

- The Lee women's soccer team continued its hot start to the 2021 Spring Season with a dominating, 3-0 victory over Carson-Newman University on a cold, wet Wednesday evening from Chattanooga Christian School.
- The Lady Flames opened the scoring as Kate Dirkse served the ball into the box and found Kesley Yoder who headed home the first of two goals in the 16th minute. She also scored on a PK in the 74th minute.
- Ellie Crisler helped Lee take a commanding 2-0 lead at halftime as she beat the keeper one on one at the 41:30 mark. The score was set up by Lauren Weimer who delivered a beautiful ball in traffic to find Crisler in stride at the top of the box.
- Haleigh Holland got her first collegiate start in goal for the Lady Flames and kept the clean sheet with three saves. Holland was replacing starter Jackie Burns, who was competing overseas for the Northern Ireland national team.

- The Lady Flames are 15-2-3 all-time against Auburn Montgomery and are 3-0 against the Warhawks in Gulf South Conference play.
- Coach Hennessey's Thoughts - "I like the balance of this team. One of things we set out to do at the start of the season was to trust the depth that we have, and we are being rewarded for that. Everybody is fresh and everybody has gotten minutes and I think that helps to give us a real good identity as we get into the business end of the season with Gulf South Conference play starting on Sunday."
- AUM opened the season with a 4-0 loss to Montevallo at home on Sunday. The Warhawks defeated West Alabama 1-0 on Feb. 5 in an exhibition match.
- After today's contest the Lady Flames will travel to Valdosta State on Thursday to play a make up game with the Blazers at 2 p.m. Lee returns home on Sunday Feb. 28 to host West Georgia at 3 p.m.
