GAME NOTES

• The Lee women's soccer team will recognize senior Devin Healy prior to tonight's kickoff with West Georgia. Healy had her senior season cut short due to an injury but was an integral part of the Lady Flames success over the last three seasons. Healy, a native of Loudon, Tenn., scored 14 career goals and had 10 assists. She was a member of the 2017 team that won the GSC Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16, the 2018 team that won the South Region and went all the way to the Final Four and the 2019 team which earned the top seed in the South Region Tournament.

• Last time out the Lee women's soccer team rallied for a late equalizer to earn a tough 2-2 road draw at Valdosta State on Feb. 25. With temperatures near 90 the Lady Flames and the Blazers battled it out for 110 minutes. Lee was playing with several starters out and had to climb out of a 2-1 deficit in the second half to remain unscathed on the season.

• "I'm really proud of the effort today," said Lee head coach Chris Hennessey after the match at Valdosta

State. "I thought we lacked in that area on Sunday so this was a good responsive from girl's today. Valdosta's a good team but we had some chances that just didn't fall for us today."

• Veteran Kelsey Yoder leads the club with eight points (Four goals) and sophomore Mallory Hayden paces the team with three assists. The goalkeeping combination of Jackie Burns (2-0) and Haleigh Holland (2-0-1) have held opponents to just three goals in five matches.

• The Wolves enter the contest at 2-1 on the year thanks to three goals by Ryelyn Wells and three assists from Cassidi Thomas. West Georgia is still looking for its first win all-time against the Lady Flames.

• Up next for Lee will be short trip down the road to Rome, Ga. to take on the winless Shorter Hawks on Sunday at 3:30 p.m. before wrapping up pool play with a trip to Montevallo on Saturday, March 14 at 4 p.m.
