• Both teams are coming off successful 2021 seasons. The Flames produced a 36-11 record and advanced to the NCAA DII South Region Championship where they went 2-2 and finished third. Lindenwood finished 34-9 after dropping two of three games in the NCAA DII Midwest Region Championship.

• While Lee began its season last weekend, Lindenwood is yet to begin its schedule.

• In Lee's last game, the Flames unloaded for 13 hits to outlast Carson-Newman University 11-9 on Tuesday. "I was really proud of the team today," said Coach Mark Brew after the Flames fought hard for the 11-9 victory. "Carson-Newman is a very good team and this is a great road win for us. Our offense showed up in a really big way today. We had some big two-strike hits and some quality battles at the plate."

• Lee jumped out to a 9-3 lead after four innings and then had to hold on to even its record against two quality opponents to 2-2 for the year. "Hunter Lane once again stepped up big for us recording the final outs," noted Brew. Lane came on to work 1.1 innings and allowed just one hit. He did not issue a free pass and struck out two in picking up the second save of the season.
