GAME NOTES

- The Flames continue GSC conference play today, looking to improve to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in conference.
- Lee is coming off a 2-1 overtime win Friday against Union. Eemeli Makela's PK with 24 seconds left in overtime brought Lee their first conference win. Gui Busato tallied a goal in the first half as well, and Sam Keener registered four saves.
- Christian Brothers is also coming off their first GSC win. The Bucs crushed Shorter 8-1 on Friday. The eight goals in a single game currently ranks first in the GSC and fourth in the NCAA Division II. Seven different CBU players scored in the game.
- Wayne Davis picked up the win in goal. He allowed one goal with three saves in 90 minutes.
- CBU began the season with wins over Harding (5-1) and Ouachita Baptist (4-1) before losing 1-0 at Bethel. The Bucs have won their last three by a combined score of 15-1, including Friday night's win at Shorter.
- Christian Brothers finished second in the 2021 GSC Spring Championship series, falling to Union 1-0.
- Christian Brother's Enda Crehan enters his second year as the Head Men's Soccer Coach. A Newbridge, Galway, Ireland native, Crehan was announced as the new Head Men's Soccer Coach in May of 2020. Crehan comes to CBU after spending three seasons as the head coach at Ferrum College (Va.).
- Coach Potteiger's thoughts on Gulf South Conference play- "We know our league is going to be a tough and that each match will present a different challenge for us. But we are excited to get into the GSC schedule and we feel like we have an opportunity to have a special season."
- After today, the Flames will continue conference play on the road. Next weekend, the Flames head to Mississippi to play more conference games: Mississippi College on Sept. 24 and Delta State University on Sept. 26.
