GAME NOTES

Lee opens up Gulf South Conference play this weekend against Union University on Friday and Christian Brothers on Saturday.

The Lady Flames are coming off a 2-1 weekend at the Lee Invitational. Coach Callie Murphy earned her first career head coaching victory last Thursday as the Lady Flames took down Young Harris, 3-1. After falling 3-1 to King on Friday, Lee bounced back with a 3-0 sweep of Kentucky State Saturday afternoon.

"It was a team effort attacking and defensively. Allie (Whittinghill), Emma (Flowers) and Lyssi (Snouffer), found their consistency and executed the game plan well on the net while Emma, Kam (Kamryn Halpin) and Reagan (Bratton) defended the score incredibly well. Reagan set a great game tonight. She read blocks and found ways to move our girls around to open up a large block. I'm excited to see how she progresses as the year goes on," said Murphy.

Flowers and Whittinghill have created a dangerous 1-2 punch offensively for the Lady Flames this season. Flowers leads the team with 67 kills while Whittinghill is closely behind with 65. Bratton has already posted 218 assists and while Halpin and Mackenzie Pearson have tallied seven aces each.

Defensively, Halpin leads the way with 69 digs while Snouffer has 66 and Scottie Cook has fired off the net for nine blocks.

The Bulldogs enter with an 8-4 mark and are coming off a 3-0 blanking of Christian Brothers on Tuesday. Three players have already reached 100-plus kills. Alyssa Tatsch has 117 while Emily Grace Calhoon and Reese Owens have put away 105. Jordan Vick gets the offense going with 374 assists and Bailey Hughes is a dangerous server with 23 aces. The Union defense, with their swing blocking technique, has posted 97 blocks in just 12 matches so far.

The Lady Bucs are off to a tough 2-11 start to the 2021 season. CBU has lost four straight matches without taking a set. Tia Rizvi leads the club with 95 kills and KaLea Davis has posted 305 assists as the primary setter.

After this weekend the Lady Flames will hit the road for a long five match road trip beginning on Tuesday against NCAA D3 powerhouse Emory University at 6 p.m. From there the Lady Flames will visit Shorter, Alabama Huntsville, Valdosta State and West Georgia. Lee will finally return home on Oct. 12 to host Valdosta State at 7 p.m.
