GAME NOTES

• Tonight's winner will advance to the semifinal round Saturday at the Pete Hanna Center on the campus of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama against the winner of No. 2 seed Valdosta State and No. 7 seed West Alabama.

• "We are excited to host another quarterfinal game, but we also know every team is capable of winning this time of the year. Only good teams are left, and we will need to be at our best if we expect to move on," said Lee coach Marty Rowe as he looked over the bracket. "Mississippi College is playing well right now and will pose a great challenge for our team. They are talented, deep and play extremely hard. Coach (Greg) Long is doing a great job of building his program and this is one of the teams we expect to continue to grow in our league."

• The Choctaws are coming off a Saturday 61-51 win against West Alabama. Ally Alford is the leading scorer (13.4 ppg). The freshman tallied 23 points and pulled down nine rebounds in the January 20 75-65 loss to the Lady Flames. Dezirae King scored 13 points. The junior is the Choctaws' top rebounder (6.5 rpg) and totaled 17 points in the win at West Alabama to wrap up regular season play.

• The Lady Flames score 72 points per game and hold opponents to 58. Haley Schubert leads the team in scoring (16.6 ppg) and assists (5.4 apg). Halle Hughes stands at 11.5 ppg and is one of the team's top rebounders (5.5 rpg). She also shoots over 40% from long range. Hannah Garrett rounds out the double-figure scorers (10.1). Julia Duncan is scoring almost 10 points per game and hitting 84% of her free throws. Cam Grant has taken over the Lee board work (6 rpg).
