GAME NOTES

The Lady Flames will recognize senior leaders Dariana Blanton and Shayna Ryan in a special ceremony prior to today's opening draw.

Coach Martin's Thoughts - Seniors Dariana Blanton and Shayna Ryan were leaders for the Lee Lacrosse program each of their four years. We will miss their contributions to the team both on and off the field. They endured a freshman year with few wins and served as positive role models for the team. They remained selfless through the years and enjoyed the benefits of their hard work when we started to win. They will both be remembered as great players and teammates.

"Dariana served her team as a dependable Captain for three years. She was always the Mother Hen of the team who took care of the players. She is a leader with her play on the field and served as our quarterback on offense. She is the all-time leader in Lee Lacrosse program history in goals with 141, assists with 49, and total points with 190.

Shayna served her team as both a Captain and a Team Chaplain. She has a great work ethic and put in extra work to improve her game each year. She always maintained a positive attitude and she was a great mentor to the younger players. She is the fourth leading scorer in Lee Lacrosse history with 91 goals, second in assists with 37, and third in draw controls with 144.

Eyes on Young Harris - The Mountain Lions enter today's contest with a 7-7 overall mark and are 2-1 in the GSC. Young Harris is coming off an 18-11 victory over Montevallo on Saturday. Taylor Greenberg leads the offense with 42 goals while Kinsley Purser and Ella Hancock have 55 points each. Hancock also boasts 71 draw controls, 33 groundballs and 16 caused turnovers.

Next Up - The Lady Flames will wait and see where and who they will play in the GSC Semifinals on April 29.
