2021 NCAA DII SOUTH REGION FIRST ROUND NOTES

- No. 4 seed Mississippi College and No. 5 seed Florida Tech face off in the first round Friday with the winner advancing to play No. 1 seed Lee University Sunday afternoon.
- This is the first meeting between the two programs.
- Mississippi College finished second in the GSC regular season with a 10-3 conference record, but fell in the first round of the GSC Championship to West Alabama in penalty kicks.
- Florida Tech finished sixth (4-2-4) in the Sunshine State Conference and made it to the Championship match of the SSC Tournament where they lost 1-0 to Embry-Riddle (Fla.).
- Prior to their loss in the SSC Championship, Florida Tech had been on a 10-game unbeaten streak (7-0-3).
- This is the fourth straight year that the Lady Choctaws have qualified for the NCAA DII Championship (discounting 2020 when there wasn't a national tournament).
- The Panthers are making their seventh NCAA tournament appearance and first since 2017.
- Florida Tech and Mississippi College faced three common opponents this season (Rollins, Auburn Montgomery and Montevallo). The Panthers defeated AUM (4-1) and Montevallo (1-0) on the road to open the season and tied Rollins 0-0. The Choctaws won all three matches, earning 4-1 victories over AUM and Montevallo and a 2-1 win over Rollins.
- The Panthers have allowed just nine goals in 18 games, good for eighth in Division II. Florida Tech ranks 11th in the nation in goals against average (0.467) and 23rd in total shutouts (10) and shutout percentage (.556). They have outscored all opponents 19-9.
- The Choctaws have allowed just 14 goals in 17 games. They are 30th in Division II with 44 total goals scored, while giving up 14 goals.
- The other half of the South Region bracket is being played in Daytona Beach, Florida, and hosted by the No. 2 seed Embry-Riddle (Fla.). Third-seeded West Florida and the No. 6 seed Valdosta State play on Friday for the right to go against ERAU on Sunday.
- This weekend's winners will meet up in the South Region Final on either December 2 or 3.
